

Uploading competition

Call for participations

The Regional Pasture Network (RPN) of Central Asia announces its first uploading competition from 6th of September to 31st of October, 2017! We would like to grow our library and make it more useful to you and fellow users - In order to do this, we need your help!

You can participate in the competition, if you have any document which is:

- about natural resource management, preferably pasture management
- focused on Central Asia
- not yet present in the RPN e-library
- preferably in Russian, English, or in the national languages of central asian countries.

For participation simply create an account on RPN's e-library by sending an email stating your name and affiliation to the following email-address: rpn@klink.asia. You can then directly start uploading documents into the e-library.

The person who uploads most relevant documents to RPN's online library wins a spot as a participant in RPN's upcoming conference on integrated pasture and forest management. There, you will get to know staff from relevant ministries, implementing and donor agencies, and NGOs and you will have the opportunity to grow your professional network.

The prize entails all expenses for travel and accommodation to get to and from the conference from one of the following countries: Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan.

Anyone can participate, so feel free to share this announcement with friends and colleagues!
